POLITICAL NOTES

The new Democratic Governor of Nevada starts out modestly and well His inaugural was devoted to the practical interests of the State made no allusions to political issues, and promised only to do his duty to the people and the State In admirable contrast is this to the long winded political disputation of our own little great Governor who, bursting with egotism, must needs relieve himself of an unparalleled amount of political twaddle and Democratic demagogisms The Democratic Governor of Nevada is not as "low down" by many degrees as the Little Demagogue of Oregon most of whose public utterances are contemptible clap-traps about the Chinaman

Among the contestants for a seat in Congress will be Hon B W Norris Republican, of the Third District of Alabama, who has served the regular notice of contest on Mr Handley, Democrat who claims to be elected The charges are made that a large number of legal votes polled for Major Norris and the Republican ticket were thrown out and not counted, and instances Russell county, which gave Major Norris and the Republican ticket a majority of 1 400 votes, but which the Democratic supervisors refused to count and certify The leading Republicans of Alabama are strong in the belief that Mr Norris should contest, and are confident that he will be successful

The New Orleans Times is industriously engaged in trying to clear up the reputations of Generals Lee and Jackson of rebellion memory Speaking of the obligations they assumed on entering the United States Academy at West Point it says "The obligation they assumed on entering the national academy (West Point) was that in all other wars or public services wherein the original rights of their States were not invaded, their loyalty and obedience were due to the Federal Government" This is, of course, a misstatement of facts The oath contains no such qualification and indeed it would be a curious oath if it did. The Times simply desires to prove that allegiance to the Federal Government is subordinate to that due any particular State, which is the Democratic doctrine of secession and rebellion

The "chivalry" of North Carolina are apt scholars in political chicanery No sooner had they obtained control of the Legislature than steps were taken to so gerrymander the Republican stronghold of Wilmington as to neutralize a clear majority of more than one thousand votes To accomplish this the city has been subdivided into five wards instead of four, leaving the bulk of Republicans in two of the wards The law requires a new election, and the Mayor, instead of being elected by the people as heretofore, is to be made a creature of the Board of Aldermen In this way the Kuklux chivalry hope to obtain control not only of a city where there is a Republican majority of from ten to twelve hundred, but through this means obtain ascendancy in the Third Congressional District, which also has a large Republican majority The project is evidently akin to certain Democratic operations in Oregon

Prim and His Work

[From the Boston Advertiser]

A little more than two years ago while the Spanish revolution was still in progress, a correspondent of the London Times who was sent to Madrid to observe and to report what he saw, wrote of Gen. Prim as follows "All men who have known Prim are attached to him He is usually grave and reserved meditative and apparently impulsive, but shrewd and quick and extremely sound and mature in judgment He is one of the most unassuming and upright characters in this country" And now that his life has closed, and we look back upon it as a whole and especially the two stormy years when he has been the head of the Spanish Government, and almost the Government itself, we find nothing to be detracted from this high praise He was the soul of the revolution that expelled the Bourbons, and has ever since guided the destinies of the kingless monarchy, and he has exercised his exalted authority in such a manner that it may be truly said that all the people of Spain mourn his death A political assassination always excites more general horror than any other kind of murder We may measure the feelings of the Spaniards by the universal grief which was poured out when President Lincoln was shot We may not, perhaps, institute a close comparison between Prim and Lincoln Their characters were different in most respects But each was invested with grave public responsibilities, each devoted himself to his task with great self abnegation and amid unmeasured abuse and detraction, and each fell a victim to the bullet of the assassin just as the successful accomplishment of his life's work was promising a season of quiet and rest from the most distracting of the cares of office

The life and character of Marshal Prim are no doubt a fair subject of discussion From one point of view, his course was marked by duplicity, his policy was temporizing and short-sighted, ambitious and despisable From another point of view, his conduct was patriotic self sacrificing, straight-forward and honorable In order to judge of it properly we must put ourselves in his place. He had seen all the depths of Bourbon infamy Among numerous sentences of exile passed upon him, one, it was more than hinted, grew out of the Queen's unlawful passion for him and his own unyielding virtue He had been in the government and in the opposition, forced in the former to perform acts against which his soul revolted and in the latter subjected to persecution confiscation and banishment It can hardly be deemed strange that when he left Southampton in violation of his exile in September 1868 to head the revolt, his own purpose was to rid his native land of the dynasty which had been both the bane of the country and his own worst enemy In this view his course ever since has been perfectly consistent It was natural that he should become the chief of the insurrectionary party and he devoted himself with all his zeal to the cause, with liberty for his watchword The revolution being successful he held still to his course and in connection with his associates of the provisional government submitted the whole question of the future constitution to the National Assembly He remained non committal on the question whether the government should be monarchical or republican but when the Cortes had declared in favor of a monarchy he devoted himself with renewed ardor to the task of preparing a good constitution on the model of that of Great Britain and the result for which the country is largely indebted to his influence is the best monarchical constitution in the world

The temporary difficulties were at last tided over Serrano was regent until a king should be found, and the country was governed by a constitution Prim who had not raised his voice for or against a republic, recognized the desire of the people, regularly expressed for a monarchy, and henceforth he was as hostile towards the republicans as against the Bourbons Much as we may regret the loss of an opportunity to establish a republic in Spain we must concede that his course was wise any other policy would have caused useless bloodshed and deplorable public disorder without improving the final prospects of a republic Then began Prim's long and until lately, vain search for a king He sought all over Europe The boy Duke of Genoa at Harrow school and Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern, were both his candidates The first caused a ministerial crisis and the second a long and bloody war which is not yet ended Through it all Prim remained at the head of affairs undismayed by defeat submitting to abuse because he did not provide a king on the one hand and on the other because of the unratified selections which he made insolently advised to resign and give place to others and through it all maintaining the same dignified firm and cheerful disposition to perform his whole duty to his country At last his efforts were successful He found a prince who satisfied himself the people and foreign governments and while his elected candidate was on the way to receive his coronation, the prime minister fell beneath the assassin's hand

Prim was by no means perfect As we have said, one view makes him out a very bad man His hesitations are ascribed to cowardice, his maintenance of his office in spite of defeat to ambition his severity to a cruel and brutal disposition. His faults were many, but so far as his public career was concerned they were rather of judgment than of disposition No breath of suspicion was ever breathed upon his private character He was perhaps a little too conciliatory on some occasions as an officer of the people, and on others too severe But the one error arose from his desire to unite as far as possible the discordant elements that grew so noisy and clamorous in the unsettled state of the Spanish government, and the other was almost pardonable considering the temptations to impatience which the conduct of these same elements have proved On the whole he has guided the Spanish people wisely in the way which they deliberately chose The new King may well mourn the loss of so patriotic, even tempered and judicious an adviser and the people of the kingdom may search longer and more vainly than did Prim for a king before they find among all the politicians of Spain one equally qualified in talents and character to fill his place

San Francisco Commercial Intelligence

Following is a summary of the business of San Francisco during the year 1870 as given by the San Francisco Bulletin

Our general import trade for the year was considerably lighter than for 1869, and [illegible] less than for any year since 18[illegible] was brought about by an overstock [illegible] general depression in business [illegible] dutiable foreign imports last year [illegible] 000, a decrease of $2 600 000 as [illegible] vious year. These figures represent [illegible] are exclusive of duties and freight [illegible] free goods brought us by the Panama [illegible] ers were valued at $10,835 000 in currency [illegible] per sworn statements at the Custom House In addition we received seventy five ship loads of coal iron and general merchandise from New York and Boston, the value of which cannot be ascertained The railroad has brought us considerable light and costly freight, of which no value is made public. To show how our domestic Atlantic trade has fallen off during the year, it is only necessary to state that the imports by the Panama steamers in 1869 were valued at $30 000 000 while 146 cargoes of merchandise were received during the same year per sailing vessels from New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia The weight of the Eastern merchandise received per Cape Horn vessels last year was 142 000 tons against 237,000 tons in 1869 These figures illustrate the great decline in that trade The amount of freight paid on cargoes of sailing vessels was $3 534 000, a decrease of nearly $3 000 000 as compared with the previous year There was paid for duties on imports the sum of $7 759,000 gold and for Internal Revenue $3 566 000 currency The number of foreign and domestic marine arrivals was essentially the same as in 1869 namely 3 500 representing upwards of 1,000 000 tons of tonnage including 591,000 tons from domestic Pacific ports 4000 tons from domestic Atlantic ports, and 370 000 tons from foreign ports Of the tonnage from foreign ports 134 000 tons was made up from our steam lines The Panama steamers brought us 10 500 tons of freight, and the China steamers, 18 700 tons, including [illegible] 000 tons in transit to New York The passenger arrivals for the year embraced 20 000 by water routes and 32 000 by rail, the departures being 13 [illegible]00 and 23,800 respectively showing a gain to our population through immigration of over 15 000 The additions to our population from the same cause during the past thirteen years aggregate 190 000 Our export trade has been somewhat diverted from the usual channels through the operations of the railroad The merchandise shipments by water aggregate $17,770 000, of which $4,259 000 went to New York, and the remainder to foreign ports. In addition from $2 000 000 to $3 000 000 in merchandise has been sent to New York by railroad Of the merchandise exported by water, $13,955 000 was composed of California products including $1 219 000 for Flour, $[illegible] 6[illegible]4 000 for Wheat, $184 000 for Barley $2 036 000 for Wool, $264 000 for Hides, $124 000 for Brandy $364 000 for Wine, $186 000 for Fish, $82,000 for Leather $245 000 for Lumber, $475 000 for Quicksilver, $583 000 for Ores, and $174 000 for Skins and Furs Our treasure exports amounted to $32,983 000, of which over $20 000 000 was in bullion $9,122,000 in gold coin, and $3 500 000 in Mexican coin The coinage at the San Francisco Mint was $20,355,000, all Gold, except $507,000 in Silver The amount of currency disbursed for army purposes was $6 383 000 Our local incorporations paid their stockholders $5 370 000 in dividends, and our Savings Banks credited their depositors with $2,803 500 The sales at the Stock Board show an aggregate of $5[illegible] 000 The transactions in real estate in the city embrace sales to the value of $15 630,000, mortgages to the amount of $13,373 000 and releases to the extent of $8 500 000 The freight engagements comprise 459 charters, representing 295 000 tons of sail tonnage On the 1st instant our inward bound fleet consisted of 83 vessels from domestic Atlantic and foreign supply ports On the same day we had in port 43 vessels of 36 500 tons register, available for long voyage business The general results of the review for the year are gratifying in that they show a more healthful condition of business on this coast

VISITING THE SAN FRANCISCO MERCANTILE LIBRARY —The Vallejo Recorder of January 11th says

A gentleman from Vallejo was recently in San Francisco and desiring to refer to a file of some particular Eastern journal went to the Mercantile Library Reading Room The San Francisco papers it will be remembered stated at the time of Camilla Urso's Grand Concert that the Library was free to strangers visiting the city While our Vallejo friend was quietly looking at the papers an inquisitive looking person with a note book in hand stepped up to him and asked his name The following colloquy ensued

Vallejo Gentleman—"For what purpose do you want it?

Inquisitive Chap—"I want to see how you stand on the books"

V G —"You won't find my name there"

I C —"Well! there is where we want to get it"

V G —"You will not get it there as I do not live in San Francisco

I C (severely)—"I suppose you are aware that this Library is kept up by subscription are you not

V G (severely)—"Not altogether by subscription is it?

I C (positively)—"Yes, sir, it is maintained altogether by subscription

V G —"Indeed! I thought you dealt a little in lotteries

The Library man was completely dumfounded at this home thrust and stood for some two minutes unable to say a word Our Vallejo friend remarked that he did not think he could afford to join the Library in order to look at the papers a few minutes and quietly took his departure before his questioner had recovered his presence of mind sufficiently to ask the name of the next man who was reading

Not less than fifteen ex rulers who still claim thrones, are now wandering crownless over Europe

THE HARTFORD CONVENTION

A POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CONTRAST

[The following article, contributed to the New York Independent by Professor Tayler Lewis is so admirable in its way that we need make no apology for its length in introducing it to our readers —ED OREGONIAN]

We make history so fast that we have little time to study it Hence it is that things of highest importance, and that happened not long ago are rapidly passing out of the public mind Such is getting to be the fate of the once famous Hartford Convention It is not essential to our present argument to go into any detailed examination of the causes that led to that event The parties engaged maintained and doubtless felt that they had grievances Among these it is sufficient to mention the three embargoes of 1807 1812 and 1813, all brought about by the preponderating Southern influence that then and long afterward ruled the nation [illegible] long with these came the war of 1812 [illegible] or wrong they were exceedingly hurtful [illegible] commerce and shipping interests of New [illegible] very life and livelihood we m[illegible] of that section of our land The alleged injury was aggravated by the fact that it was forced upon them by the uncommercial d[illegible] of the country—cotton at that time having not attained the importance it afterwards acquired It may be said of the embargo too that [illegible] political measures with the exception [illegible] of the fugitive slave law, ever so deeply [illegible] fected State rights, real or [illegible] were adjudged to be Constitutional [illegible] ground of "the general welfare" [illegible] many of the ablest lawyers m[illegible] great force that the clause to regulate commerce could not be fairly c[illegible] ing a power to prohibit [illegible] it may no enactment wi[illegible] mentioned ev[illegible] ing of State independence [illegible] became predominant [illegible] this early day [illegible]

[illegible]

The [illegible] right [illegible] nullif[illegible] court [illegible] which [illegible] made law [illegible] under foot [illegible] to the [illegible] State made [illegible]

The opposition of New England [illegible] measure [illegible] with them [illegible] cess it ma[illegible] faction [illegible] in the H[illegible] whose d[illegible] mind S[illegible] this account [illegible] sulted in [illegible] the nation [illegible] caused the [illegible] drop of [illegible] made no [illegible] a farthing [illegible] made th[illegible] essary a[illegible] affecting [illegible] mark, [illegible] in the co[illegible] of all w[illegible]

Now [illegible] tion p[illegible] stance [illegible] amn[illegible] amble [illegible] ned [illegible] might [illegible] been [illegible] magnifying [illegible] a trace even [illegible] structive hand [illegible] strong feeling ex[illegible] venting their seeming th[illegible] about them in a disp[illegible] spirit [illegible] course might, perhaps be styled faction even seditious in its tendency and [illegible] putting the case in the worst light [illegible] But there was no treason even in [illegible] There was not the shadow of any ov[illegible] there was nothing that amounted to [illegible] cation even, much less any threat [illegible] sion They complained of grievances [illegible] with causes far less, and with [illegible] more fiercely treasonable Southern [illegible] tions have done again and again (and [illegible] too with perfect impunity) in our strange inconsistent and most one sided history In a word, they were sectional Alleged grievances, and a strong sense of injury had converted some of the most national of our national founders into jealous and complaining "State Rights" men They had allowed party feeling, arising out of strong local feeling to impair for a season that higher sense of national loyalty for which New England before as since had been most distinguished This was their offense, no more.

"It was a grievous fault
And grievously they answered it."

It is true, they did not go a step beyond strong and perhaps, intemperate remonstrance but the time was ill-chosen and they were condemned by public sentiment, as having instituted proceedings that had the appearance of disunion To this sentence they yielded as to something politically healthy in its tone even if they did not admit the full justice of its application

From these preliminaries thus briefly presented, two contrasts vividly suggest themselves The one has reference to the course of parties, the other, to the individual action The Democratic party ever made the most of the Hartford Convention Politically it may be said to have lived on it Whatever fault there may have been it certainly had the palliation of the State rights feeling and yet from 1814 down to the firing upon Sumter did this hypocritical State rights party calling itself Democratic and false alike to both names keep their swart hounds open mouthed upon this scent Sumter muzzled them but even now would they be keeping up their cry of disunion treason death by the articles of war, if it were not that the hanging sceptre of this most bloody Southern treason, and their own intimate alliance with it had shamed them into silence It was like their talk when the miserable slave was dragged in chains through the streets of Boston The Union must be preserved, they said, the law must be enforced Even if it require the whole army and navy of the United States and Boston is laid in ashes that slave must be carried back to his master What is Boston what is Massachusetts with her claim of State protection to the majesty of the Federal Constitution? Perish both State and city, rather than set aside one jot or tittle of that sacred instrument Such was then the literal language of men whom we have since heard whining about "our Southern brethren and fratricidal war and the unconstitutionality of any attempt to preserve the Constitution by force and the special enormity of "coercing a sovereign State Hanging—hanging under the articles of war—such was the sentence pronounced in the one case, where the treason was almost invisible So swore the Democratic chief, and so applauded the Democratic leaders who are now demanding for rebellion the remission of all forfeiture moral and social, as well as penal It is not simply the sparing of life and property—that the nation has already done with a magnanimity to which history shows no parallel it is not simply pardon that is claimed but amnesty (amnestia), forgetfulness oblivion of all demerit, full restoration to all the high places of the land They are to be Congressmen again Judges and candidates it may be for the Presidential chair They are to legislate for the nation they did their best to destroy they are to decide on the claims of widows and orphans whom their own hands have made they are to be trusted in providing ways for the payment or the repudiation of the heavy debt their own most causeless and bloody treason has rendered necessary We would not moralize upon it The bare statement of the case is sufficient The act would be [illegible] no seeming expediency could [illegible] or truly expedient It would be demoralizing to the national co[illegible] would sink at once that h[illegible] give support and strength [illegible] exertions requir[illegible] dire re[illegible] ever more mis[illegible] achieve [illegible] now a mantle [illegible] giving [illegible] We [illegible] scripture [illegible] land [illegible] things [illegible] some[illegible] by any [illegible] sense [illegible] this can [illegible] falls [illegible] may can [illegible] expe[illegible] demand [illegible] such [illegible] the [illegible] best [illegible] the [illegible] as it [illegible] of a civil [illegible] war is a [illegible] nation, [illegible] This [illegible] exist[illegible] break[illegible] may deem [illegible] the [illegible] civil [illegible] they [illegible] to [illegible] it is [illegible] of [illegible] as [illegible] be [illegible] con[illegible] that [illegible] political [illegible] tion [illegible] cred [illegible] comes [illegible] mitted [illegible] alone [illegible] of [illegible] ational [illegible] contrast [illegible] and [illegible] no less [illegible] courses [illegible] lead [illegible] as we [illegible] action [illegible] as [illegible] Cal[illegible] ation of [illegible] ublic [illegible] their [illegible] was deemed [illegible] selves as well as others, [illegible] their places in [illegible] Nathan [illegible] Harrison Gray Otis, [illegible] Dan [illegible] James Hill [illegible] ward [illegible] had [illegible] National [illegible] after[illegible] They [illegible] from public [illegible] to literature, [illegible] we have [illegible] of [illegible] they [illegible] say, [illegible] stone [illegible] too [illegible] contrast be[illegible] ocious [illegible] in this [illegible] Stephens [illegible] they [illegible] Harrison Gray Otis [illegible] them of [illegible] standing his seat [illegible] seeking with the [illegible] battle—Union [illegible] for no other [illegible] the national allegiance [illegible] he gave no amnesty the [illegible] now demands it for himself with no confess[illegible] but in a spirit of [illegible] bravado Most valuable indeed is the political lesson we learn from this but no less impressive is the view it gives us of the difference between the boasted Southern chivalry and that New England nobleness which the Wises and the Vances at the South with the Seymours and the Vallandighams of the North, have so labored to disparage and revile

Free Trade Illustrated

"Revenue reformers" so-called who want to reform the revenue by abolishing duties on imports and continuing internal taxation take a pride in glorifying the imaginary beauties of free trade in other words drawing upon their imagination for their facts With them experience counts for nothing it is no lamp to guide their feet Skyrocketing after theories, they dwell perpetually in the region of Utopian dreams and take no thought of the practical concerns of natural industry and the financial wants of the Government

Never in any civilized community has there been an exemplification of free trade, pure and simple, as between distinct nationalities The nearest approach to an illustration of free trade workings is to be found in the commercial relations which existed between the North and the South, before the rebellion In the slave section labor was universally considered a badge of degradation hence skilled workmen were few and far between, hence manufactures were under the ban of popular opinion Capital sought investment in nearly all directions except in those arts and industries on which the true prosperity of a country depends In consequence the dependence of the South on the North and upon foreign countries for all manufactured articles was complete and humiliating An illustration [illegible] condition may be seen in the following [illegible] known incident in the life of S S [illegible] the most eloquent of all Southerners [illegible] Patrick Henry

During an exciting political campaign, he was addressing [illegible] one thousand people [illegible] Mississippi [illegible] the tariff and, in the course of [illegible] period which rose gradually to its most beautiful [illegible] he painted the thrift, the energy, the comfort, the wealth, the civilization of the North in glowing colors, when there rose upon the [illegible] of the ceremony in the [illegible] of magnificent [illegible] portions, and just at the moment [illegible] attention, when the voice of Prentiss had ceased and the applause was about to break [illegible] horseman exclaimed "D[illegible] North [illegible]" There was so much [illegible] with the national feeling of a Mississippi audience that [illegible] their enthusiasm and nothing but [illegible] for the speaker kept the crowd from applauding the horseman. Prentiss [illegible] turned round and said "Major Moody [illegible] you stood [illegible] a moment." He assented [illegible] Major the horse on which you [illegible] came from [illegible] Missouri the saddle was [illegible] came from Trenton [illegible] was made in Danbury Conn the boots you wear came from Lynn Mass the linen of your shirt is Irish and Boston made it up your broadcloth [illegible] manufacture, and was [illegible] in New York and to-day you surrender was you [illegible] North you would [illegible] naked!"

[illegible] could [illegible] imagine [illegible] we [illegible] we trade obtain a secure [illegible] America [illegible] every manufactory would be taken [illegible] existence except perhaps in a few rare and exceptional cases of the ruder sort of manufacture With wood [illegible] every hand we would import [illegible] as the [illegible] imported from the North [illegible] pianos hollow ware [illegible] and shoe-pegs In like manner we would [illegible] trans Atlantic [illegible] steam engines locomotives railroad [illegible] locks, screws needles and pins [illegible] we might add nearly the whole [illegible] production

It was dependence of [illegible] that General Jackson [illegible] to guard against and he regarded [illegible] great a matter that he declared there [illegible] danger that it might subvert the [illegible] Were our own manufactures [illegible] we should be in no small degree at the mercy of foreign nations In such dependence [illegible] Does any patriotic American [illegible] day when such a condition of affairs [illegible] Do our agriculturists [illegible] any future that should be sought [illegible] with feverish anxiety [illegible] what free trade champions and [illegible] what that doctrine would bring [illegible] and industrial situation [illegible] will meet the free trade doctrine

It appears that a new nigger party is arising in the South [illegible] local election last week at Selma says [illegible] Alabama [illegible] recent date [illegible] any hour during the day on almost any street corner [illegible] Selma Democrats could be seen hobnobbing with the [illegible] on the most familiar terms, [illegible] with negroes walked arm in arm with negroes rode in carriages with negroes and all this was done in the most public manner and without any reserve as to who might [illegible] spectators We have to record the demise of the Republican party as the distinctive nigger party, and to chronicle the appearance of the negro-hating Democrats [illegible]

The [illegible] statement of the public debt on the 1st of January showed the total to be $2,332,067,794. On the 1st of January, 1870, it was $2,428,746,953 The apparent decrease in the year just ended was $116,679, [illegible] But to this should be added $3,259,794, [illegible] Treasury, during the year, has advanced to the Pacific Railway Companies to pay interest due on their second mortgage bonds. Adding to this the sum paid on debt account and we have within a very small fraction of $120,000,000 paid in the year 1870 over current expenses and interest on the National debt

Chief Justice Chase said a few days ago at New York that he expected to assume his duties before the end of the present term He further says For some months I have taken no interest in politics I think General Grant's San Domingo policy does not warrant Mr Sumner's opposition If the people of San Domingo desire to come into the Union, we can do no better than to gratify their wish by annexing them to the United States I think great advantages would accrue to this country from the possession of an island in the West Indies

The approaching Presidential election in Mexico is attracting unusual attention in the United States and elsewhere, from the fact, as the S F Bulletin observes, that it will settle the question whether it is possible for the free Government consolidated by Benito Juarez to be perpetuated and a new President be chosen, or the present able Chief Magistrate re-elected without resort to arms and the repetition of those disorders which we have been accustomed to regard as chronic in Mexico

At Olympia a society called the "Association of Pioneers" has been formed. All citizens whose residence dates back to 1860 are invited to come in This is somewhat more sensible than the course pursued in organizing a similar society in Oregon some time ago which no one was permitted to join unless he had been in the country at least as long a time as Jo Meek We may add that that society is apparently very dead At least we have heard nothing from it for a long time We believe it was called the Oregon Historical Society, or something of that sort Who knows what has become of it?

John T Hoffman does not want the Democratic nomination for the Presidency—of course not Jemmy Twicher, says the San Francisco Chronicle didn't intend to steal the eggs—by no means Cæsar thrice refused the imperial crown Horatio Seymour with tears in his eyes thrice refused to be the choice of his party and now comes Hoffman to repeat the farce

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON CITY

WASHINGTON CITY D C Jan 5 1871

THE ATTORNEY GENERALSHIP

The Committee described in my last called on the President to-day at 12 o clock and respectfully urged the appointment of Senator Williams to a place in the Cabinet The President replied that no one had a higher opinion of Senator Williams than himself, but he had a full Cabinet and he gave no intimation of what he would do in case a vacancy occurred

OREGON MAIL ROUTES

Senator Corbett introduced a bill to establish the following mail routes From Jacksonville by Central Point and Byles Ferry to McDaniel's Mills

From Ashland, by Brown's, Link river Lost river, Yanox, Drew's valley, and Hot Springs, on Dr Greenman's farm to Lake City California

From Yreka, Cal, to Brown's Link river Klamath Agency and Fort Klamath He has also requested the Postmaster General to establish Postoffices at the following places Central Point, Bybee's Ferry, and McDaniel's Mills, in Jackson county

OREGON MEMORIALS.

Since my last letter, Mr Smith has received three additional memorials from the Secretary of the State of Oregon.

One of them prays that the Siletz Indian Reservation be vacated, one asking six sections of land per mile to aid in the construction of a military wagon road from Eugene City by Springfield up the McKenzie Fork of the Wallamet river, across the Cascade Mountains above the "Three Sisters," to Crooked river

The other is a solemn protest against the treaty with China, and the Oregon Legislature requests the abrogation of the treaty and demands that the Oregon Legislature exercise the authority to regulate the immigration of Chinamen to Oregon

COMMISSIONER WILSON

It is rumored that Joseph S Wilson, Commissioner of the General Land Office, is to be removed If all his acts are as inaccurate as his last report about Oregon, he ought to be removed For instance, he says, "The four principal navigable rivers are the Columbia, [illegible] Stars and Pen d Oreille, or Clark's Fork There are others navigable for a short distance, [illegible] as the Santiam emptying [illegible] If the Commissioner of [illegible] Office, whose duty it is to [illegible] maps, is allowed to publish such [illegible] as this about Oregon, be returned, [illegible] expect the masses of the people in the Atlantic States to be ignorant of our geography

THE TERRITORIES

At Owyhee a few days ago, a Chinaman killed a brother Chinaman because the sum of fifteen dollars was due the killer from the killee, which the said killee wouldn't pay.

In view of the disposition manifested among the Democratic members of the Idaho Legislature to discuss questions with sticks, brickbats and inkstands the Boise Statesman advises them that they can procure a supply of Democratic logic around the assay office works and the brick yard [illegible] it might be well to require the sergeant-at-arms to keep a supply of broken stones and brick bats carried down, so it would be handy [illegible] members [illegible] their pockets as they pass into their deliberations The supply of inkstands on hand will not hold out for the balance of the session"

In the Idaho Legislature on the 7th inst., a [illegible] the woman suffrage bill One member [illegible] get the floor while another was speaking when the latter seized an ink stand and [illegible] interrupter, spattering the ink all over his good clothes A correspondent of one of the papers [illegible] says that "if M—— had been a fighting man—I would have popped, and [illegible] man would have been killed" A large number of ladies had congregated to listen to the debate and when the ink slinging began, about half of them left the house Long ago the Idaho Legislature was noted for incidents of this kind There was a tie vote on the bill, which was therefore lost

From the Owyhee Avalanche Gus Pixley has brought into this office a medium sized black pocket book, found by an Indian on the middle fork of Catherine creek The Indian states that he found it in the pocket of a coat, which had the collar and skirt partially torn off Besides other papers, the book contains a declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States by Sven Johnson, a subject of the King of Norway and Sweden The declaration is dated, August 22d, 1870, and is signed R E Hallock, Clerk, by P. C Learned, Deputy Clerk of the Third Judicial District of Idaho. There are also two photographs in the book, one of a young lady, the other of a young man, in both of which we recognize Scandinavian features It is feared that the owner may have been foully dealt with Perhaps he died alone in the mountains and was devoured by wolves

OREGON

At Dallas an institution called the "Dallas Literary Society" flourishes

On Monday evening of last week a saloon belonging to a man by the name of Keiter, at Monroe, in Benton county, was burned to the ground Loss, about $1,500

The following friendly advice appears in the Eugene Guard If the individual who was so badly frightened last Sunday night while attempting to rob a hen roost up town, is a man of family and intends to follow this business, he should arrange his worldly affairs, insure his life and prepare to depart this existence, or else learn the trade over again. He makes too much noise, and on the night mentioned came very near being made a seat for six able-bodied men

PERSONAL NOTES

Gladstone according to a London letter, is suffering from overwork and heart disease

The Bordeaux Journal reports the death of McMahon, and his burial at Weisbaden

The French declare that the moral effect of the bombardment of Paris is "encouraging" It causes a universal demand for a more energetic policy There's nothing like taking a philosophic view of things

It is believed that the London conference will not be held at all, and that Russia will do as she pleases with Turkey, and Germany be permitted to crush France completely, if she can Where is England's ascendency in Europe?

The latest information from Paris gives the number of inhabitants at present undergoing the horrors of a siege in that city, as 2,005,709 This number is exclusive of the troops of the regular army, sailors, and members of the Gardes Mobile

Minnesota papers tell a sad story of a little girl and boy who wandered away from the house of their father in Morrison county, in that State, and subsequently were found dead by the Indians The boy lay on his back having apparently died without much suffering The girl had taken her rings from her ears and wrapping them with a lock of her hair in a small piece of cloth, had put the little parcel in her pocket and then laid down and died from cold hunger and exposure

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 24

Sortie from Paris—Pursuit and Defeat of Bourbaki—Faidherbe driven back

LONDON, Jan 20, 4 20 P. M —The French made a sortie from Mont Valerian yesterday The fighting lasted till dark The German loss was inconsiderable General Von Werder commenced the pursuit of Bourbaki, with whom he had a successful engagement yesterday In the north the advanced divisions of Gen Faidherbe's army have been driven from Beauvois to St Quentin with the loss of 5,000 wounded and prisoners Gen Von Goeben attacked Faidherbe yesterday, and after an obstinate fight of seven hours, drove him out of position and into St Quentin

The Germans Occupy Tours

LONDON, Jan 20 —The Germans have occupied Tours meeting with no resistance. The journals of Lille deny that stores are being removed from Arras Prince George of Saxony telegraphs to Dresden that the Saxons while reconnoitering on the 19th, surprised a force from Paris on Sermo Grasta, and captured 5 officers and 150 privates The bombardment continues with good results

The remainder of the Prussian loan will be offered in London and Berlin next week

Dispatches from the Emperor—Sortie from Mont Valerien Repulsed

LONDON, Jan 20 —The Emperor telegraphs to Empress Augusta from Versailles on the 19th A sortie was made from Valerien to day under cover of a heavy fire, but was resultless The Army of the North was beaten to day before St Quentin, and 4,000 prisoners and two guns captured

[Signed] WILLIAM

Another dispatch from the Emperor, dated Versailles, Jan. 20, says Faidherbe will be pursued to day The sortie from Valerien yesterday was made in great force The troops are still outside of Paris, and a great attack is certain to day

[Signed.] WILLIAM

The Conference—Burning of Longwy.

LONDON Jan 20,—Berlin journals confirm the report that Count Bernstoff has been instructed to withdraw from the Conference if the French question is introduced

It is reported from the Belgium frontier that Longwy is in flames, but a heavy fog prevents verification of the report

Large numbers of refugees have arrived on the British island of Jersey from the neighboring French coast, in consequence of rumors that the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg was advancing on Rennes.

Bismarck in a letter of the 17th, replying to Americans, says other foreign ministers in Paris deny the reasonableness of their demand that their compatriots might be allowed to quit the city Neutrals, he says, had abundant notice before the siege, and that the only outlet now is capitulation Facilities for intercourse of ministers with their respective governments continue, though they are inconvenient Firing on buildings containing women, children and invalids is unintentional, but unavoidable.

American Vessels with Contraband Goods cannot be Captured

The North German Gazette states that according to the treaty of 1779, between Prussian and the United States, Prussian men of war cannot capture American vessels carrying contrabands of war, but may stop carriage until the end of the war, or may take possession of the contraband portion of the cargo, at the same time giving bond for future payment of the same It is probable instructions will be given to all commanders of vessels of the German navy to act in accordance with this treaty

Fort Issy Abandoned—Fires in Paris

VERSAILLES, Jan. 20 —Last night the German's put forward a patrol into the trenches communicating between Forts Issy and Vanvres without getting resistance Fort Issy was found deserted Finding mines and torpedoes, the patrol retreated.

Large fires were seen in Paris last night near the Pantheon

Another Sortie with Heavy Loss to the Germans.

Yesterday, the 19th, a sortie in force was made from under the guns of Fort Valerien The cannonading was fearful on both sides The German loss is heavy

London Dispatches

The Argonaut from Liverpool for Philadelphia, put into Queenstown with the loss of her sails and in a leaking condition

The World's cable dispatch from London, 20th, says Gladstone resigns his seat from Greenwich, and Grosvenor retires from Westminster Childers is paralyzed in the lower half of his body The Ministry is going to pieces.

NEW YORK, Jan 22 —A Herald's cable dispatch from London the 20th, says much excitement is caused in political circles by the rumored difficulties in the Cabinet. Although the statement that Childers has resigned is officially contradicted, his retirement is only a question of time, on account of his health There is no truth in the statement that members of the Conference have signed a resolution declaring that no single power has a right to amend the treaty made jointly by others The Conference is regarded as a stupendous farce, designed to blind people of the fact of England's humiliation before Russia

Storming and Capture of St. Quentin

LONDON, Jan 21 —St Quentin railway station was stormed by the Prussians and the town afterwards occupied Two thousand wounded and one thousand French were captured, with six guns

The Prussians occupy approaches to Longwy The French shells destroyed a farm house and burnt 40 Prussians. It is said the fire of the garrison silenced the battery

Nothing new from Paris of the damages by bombardment But few are killed

Droves of oxen intended for Paris passed through Reims, ready for the advance of Chanzy, who was receiving reinforcements

The establishment of a Belgian camp at Lamus is discussed

The bombardment of Longwy is vigorously continued and the town is on fire

VERSAILLES Jan 20 —The French advanced near Fort Valerien, but attempted nothing further Montoil was surprised yesterday by the Prussian's 9th division, who retook it The Prussian's lost 20 officers and 200 men Both French and Prussian troops remain in the same position. Prussian loss in the sortie 400 The French loss was so heavy that they asked for an armistice of forty eight hours.

WEST INDIES.

From San Domingo.

SAN DOMINGO, Jan 10 —The news of the visit of the United States Commissioners is received with general favor, and by some with enthusiasm. Affairs are at a standstill, waiting further action by the American Congress Agents of German, English and American capitalists are traveling through the Island making investigations in order to begin enterprises when the annexation is consummated Cabrall continues to issue proclamations and commit depredations, but don't care to meet Baez' troops

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Confederation Accepted

VICTORIA, Jan 18 —The Legislative Council to day accepted Confederation unanimously It is believed the Colony will be joined to Canada on the 1st of next July

The Pacific Coast Delegation and Senator Williams

The following is the N Y Herald's account telegraphed from Washington, of the visit of the Pacific coast delegation to the President to talk about Cabinet matters It will be seen that this report puts a different face on the matter and gives a widely different impression regarding it from that which was telegraphed here

A delegation composed of Governor George L Woods B F Dowell H R Kincaid C M Lockwood and D P Thompson of Oregon General J A Sutter Colonel D S Turner Colonel T A Bee T B Valentine E Wilson and W H Davis of California William P Jones of Wyoming E F Dunn S T Gage, C J Hillyer of Nevada, L L Blake C B O Bannon of Montana and J Hailley of Idaho called upon the President to-day for the purpose of presenting the name of Senator Williams for the favorable consideration of the President whenever a vacancy should occur in the Cabinet The interview was entirely informal and proceeded in the easy conversational style. Governor Woods was the first to address the President He said they called as the representatives of the republican party of the States and Territories west of the Missouri river and bordering on the Pacific Ocean They were all the friends and supporters of the administration They wished to respectfully suggest that if consistent with the views and the policy of the President, the Pacific coast should have a representative in the Cabinet. Of course they were aware that no vacancy now existed but the rumor was current that Attorney General Akerman proposed to retire In that event they hoped the President would consider favorably the claims of Senator Williams of Oregon The President remarked that he was on intimate terms with Senator Williams and had a very high appreciation of his honesty and ability Governor Wood said the appointment of Senator Williams to a place in the Cabinet would be the means of strengthening the Administration in California Oregon and Nevada It would serve to make a rallying point for the Republicans of the Pacific coast The President said he regretted that there was not more unanimity among the leaders of the party in California, and intimated that their personal dissensions and divisions had given the State to the Democrats Mr Hillyer suggested that the divisions of the party in California should not be allowed to interfere with the claims of Senator Williams He [illegible] the President would lay aside all feeling in this matter and appoint Williams with the view of uniting the party The President said there is no vacancy in the Cabinet Some of the party then remarked that changes were predicted in the newspapers especially in the Attorney General's office The President replied that the newspapers changed his Cabinet almost daily but still he reiterated the fact that there was no vacancy at present though he could not tell what might happen Judge Turner said that much of the difference among the members of the party on the Pacific coast was caused by the character of the men appointed to fill the federal offices out there Many of these appointees were carpet-baggers from other States If the Pacific States had a representative in the Cabinet they would be more likely to have persons appointed to office who were in unison with the people All the differences in the party were so many arguments in favor of placing Mr Williams in the Cabinet Colonel Bee intimated that the appointment of Williams would heal all dissensions cement the party and carry the Pacific States for the administration He believed the Republicans of that section would follow the lead of Senator Williams and would again become united In the course of the conversation the President hinted to the delegation what he has frequently told delegations on a similar errand from Pennsylvania and other States—namely that he considered it his privilege to select his own Cabinet officers, personally, and independent of outside interference As predicted in these dispatches last night, the President did not commit himself to the delegation but he left the impression on their minds that in case of a vacancy the claims of Senator Williams would be duly considered It is but just to Senator Williams to state that this whole movement was without his knowledge or consent He was entirely ignorant of it until he read it in the Herald this evening

Many eloquent warnings have been uttered from the scaffold At a recent execution of a murderer in Missouri, he said to those who had assembled to witness his ignominious death "Whiskey and the bearing of pistols have ruined me If you don't want them to ruin you if you don't want to be imprisoned, and in the end brought to the scaffold, don't drink whiskey, don't carry firearms"

Chicago modesty against the world Ex-Gov Bross told the Chicago Press Club, at its banquet, that the managing editor of the greatest newspaper in the world would yet sit in his chair in Chicago, and he believed that the man was among those who sat before him.

At last some of Baker's party have discovered a confluent to the lower Nile. As it is evidently a rivulet of recent birth it would be well to call it the JuveNile.

REV A L LINDSLEY D D	Portland	Feb'y 14
REV D R NESBIT	Corvallis	Feb'y 21
COL B S PARDEE	Olympia	Feb'y 28
REV P S KNIGHT	Salem	March 7

The First Lecture of the Course will be delivered by the REV THOS. CONDON of The Dalles on Tuesday Evening, Jan'y 31, 1871,

At 7½ o clock

Subject—A Description of Three Stone Heads The Country from which They Came and The Times in which They Lived

The Science of Geology is assuming so much importance in its relations to historical questions especially to the Creation and the Race of Man that every one should know something of its principles and keep pace with its results

The Rev Mr Condon has given many years to the study of this his favorite science and can give more general information on the subject in a single lecture than can be gleaned by months of reading He has made the Geology of Oregon a Specialty and by his untiring efforts and at great expense has collected a fine cabinet of Specimens many of which will be on exhibition the evening of the Lecture. As a speaker he is plain consecutive and comprehensive and although he is obliged to travel over a vast field within the limits assigned, yet he does not disappoint by unsatisfactory brevity or evasive generalities Those who heard him last winter need no other inducement to come again and to those who did not we can promise a literary feast.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 24 1871

CITY.

MATTERS AT EAST PORTLAND.—The first thing a visitor to East Portland meets with is mud. If he goes up into town he crosses a very muddy bridge and then he finds more mud. A few planks and bits of boards are, in some places, laid down in the semblance of a walk, but mud is the prevailing feature both in the streets and on the walks and crossings. It might be supposed that private enterprise would prompt the citizens of "the railroad city of the Northwest" to construct passably good sidewalks, at least.

The contractor for grading B and Second streets has a large force of men at the job. A track has been laid down along the line of Second street from Clinton's Point toward the long bridge, on which the dump cars carry out the street fill, from the face of the high bank near the west end of the new wharf.

The railroad warehouse on the new wharf is to be an immense affair when finished. It is forty two feet wide and is already two hundred and eighty feet long. A force of carpenters are constantly adding to its length by erecting new bents at the upper end, and covering as they go. When completed, it will be four hundred feet long, containing an area of floor of 16,800 square feet. The wharf is rapidly approaching completion.

POPULAR LECTURES.—The Young Men's Christian Association of this city, has made arrangements for the delivery, at Philharmonic Hall, of a series of six lectures—one each week, beginning Tuesday evening, Jan 31st. The first of the course will be delivered by Rev Thos Condon, of the Dalles. Subject: "The Three Rose Heads." The lecture will naturally embrace some of the leading principles and facts of the science of Geology. Mr Condon is gifted with a most happy faculty of investing his talks on this subject, in particular, with an interest and charm that few men know how to employ. Having devoted a good part of his life to the study of the science, and many years to the special investigation of the geology of the Pacific coast, he talks familiarly and readily as would the teacher of long experience of the ordinary problems in [illegible]. The rocks seem to him like an open book, from which he reads to his audience the most interesting stories of the long past centuries. No one should miss the opportunity to hear this first lecture in the course.

TALKS TO YOUNG MEN.—Rev Dr Lindsley has been for some time directing his Sunday evening discourses particularly to young men. He has, fortunately, struck the right public chord and his audiences are very full indeed. Of late we have heard his discourses very frequently discussed among a class of men who are habitually careless about attending divine services, showing that the rev. gentleman has succeeded in making his talks interesting as well as useful. His talk last Sunday evening was designed to enforce the policy and necessity of integrity of character, not only as an essential christian need, but also as the means of success in the world. His suggestions were of the practical character which most surely [illegible] themselves upon the minds of worldly men who are not always touched by merely doctrinal sermons. If all the pastors of the city were to deliver each Sunday evening something in the nature of a popular sermon the churches would very soon be fuller than they are.

[illegible] A FRAY—A MAN STABBED BY HIS BROTHER.—About 5 o'clock last evening an affray occurred between Edward Glennon and Thomas Glennon, brothers, at the residence of the latter, corner of [illegible] and Clay streets. Edward was in the house and was using abusive [illegible] to the children of his brother, when [illegible] ordered him out of the house. From this a quarrel ensued, during which Thomas [illegible] who had a carving knife in his hand suddenly rushed upon Edward and stabbed him in the left side, the knife going downward and penetrating the lung. Dr. Glitner was called to attend upon the wounded man, and from him we learn that there is an internal hemorrhage which may result fatally, the chances being greatly against recovery. Thomas [illegible] was arrested and jailed. An examination will be had, we refrain from stating more than the [illegible] circumstances of the deplorable affray.

EAST PORTLAND WATER COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office of the East Portland Water Company.—Incorporators, James Stephens, A M [illegible] and J W Webb. [illegible] state the objects of the incorporation to be to supply the city of East Portland with water for domestic, fire and other purposes, to own and control water rights, water [illegible] and for the purpose of carrying out such purpose to purchase and own lands and real property to employ labor, etc. The capital stock of the company is $50 000, divided into shares of $100 each. The principal office of the company is located at East Portland. [illegible] were executed Jan 19th.

MORE ROOM WANTED.—[illegible] we made mention a week ago of the crush of freight at Oregon City and other points along the river, the P T Co's warehouse at the former place has become literally jammed full, that the company have had to stop some of their boats. The Success and the Fly have been laid up and were not the [illegible] mills and [illegible] mills fitted with [illegible] to hold large quantities of wheat, the company would have had to stop others of their boats for the want of store room. Their warehouse at Oregon City now contains considerably more than 2 000 tons, and this is only a tithe of the freight awaiting shipment at places up the river. Where are the ships to carry all this stuff away?

COMMISSIONS ISSUED.—During the last week commissions were issued to staff officers of Gen. [illegible], as follows: S V Fuller, Assistant Adjutant General, with rank of Major; W F. Wil[illegible], Aid de Camp, with rank of Captain; E [illegible], Aid de Camp, with rank of Captain, and [illegible] Wetherford, Surgeon, with rank of Major. Commissions were also issued to Alexander Campbell, 1st Lieut. and Horatio Cook, 2d Lieut., Co. [illegible] Washington Guard.

ADDITIONAL FREIGHT FOR BARK GUNGNER.—Yesterday morning the steamer Dixie Thompson took down to the bark Gungner the last installment of her wheat freight for Liverpool. The [illegible] added to the vessel's freight, since she [illegible] down the river, is 1,796 sacks, equal to [illegible] bushels, or 236,709 pounds. The total freight is, therefore, 14,320 sacks, equal to 29,[illegible] 48 10ths bushels, or 1,789,653 pounds, of the value of $34,000.

SELLING LIQUOR TO INDIANS.—Yesterday, John Brown and Chauncy Martin were brought before Ralph Wilcox, U S Commissioner, and examined upon a charge of selling liquor to Indians, at or near Salem. They were each held to [illegible] in the sum of $500. Brown gave bail and went at large. Martin in default of bail was committed.

SAWMILL FOR AURORA.—The Willamette Iron Works were yesterday afternoon preparing for [illegible] to Aurora, the irons for a fine sawmill, [illegible] for the use of the German colony. It is to run by water, and is calculated to cut from 10,000 to 15,000 feet of boards per day. The castings and other pieces were of first class workmanship.

AMUSEMENTS

ORO FINO THEATER.—There was a good house last evening, under the stimulating effect of the [illegible] in prices. The comedy of "The Mo[illegible] Question" and the ever popular farce of "The Conjugal Lesson," with a dance by Miss [illegible] constituted the bill. To night will be produced the brilliant comedy of "Faint Heart never won Fair Lady," a fancy dance by Miss [illegible] and the farce of "The Married Rake."

THE SKATING RINK.—This place of amusement is still full every afternoon and evening, and everybody votes it the best place for exercise, amusement and fun there is in the city. To night a band of music will be present in the gallery, and a large crowd may be expected.

VIEUXTEMPS BENEFIT.—In another column will be found a correspondence between some of our prominent citizens and the Vieuxtemps Brothers, by which a complimentary benefit is tendered to and accepted by, the latter. The benefit will take place at Philharmonic Hall next Friday evening, on which occasion the brothers will present a rare [illegible] programme—instrumental and vocal performance. The Vieuxtemps are now disconnected with the "Taylor Family."

PANORAMA OF PARADISE LOST.—Dore's Panorama of Paradise Lost, will be exhibited again in this city at Philharmonic Hall, at 2 o clock this afternoon. Those who witnessed it last week speak of it as a very interesting and amusing exhibition. Beside the panorama proper, there are [illegible] modern views.

WASHINGTON FACT AND GOSSIP.

The House, with great unanimity, has passed a resolution granting an extra allowance of $2 500 per year to Gen Schenck while he should occupy the position of Minister to Great Britain, for the purpose of employing an amanuensis, in consequence of the disability of his hand from wounds received in battle.

Gen Butler is after some old facts from Democratic authority concerning the annexation of San Domingo, and has introduced a resolution calling for the reports of John Hogan, sent as Commissioner to San Domingo during the administration of President Polk, and also the report of Captain George B McClellan, sent on a similar mission to the same island during the administration of President Pierce.

Gen Hardie, who was detailed from Gen Sheridan's department to visit Montana and investigate the so-called Montana war claims, being claims for expenditures in repressing Indian hostilities, has returned to headquarters at Chicago, and is preparing his report for submission to the Secretary of War. The original claims amount to over a million of dollars, but under the pruning they will get at the hands of Secretary Belknap, the amount is not likely to reach a quarter of that sum.

Mr Sumner's present attitude toward the Administration, says a letter to the New York Times, recalls to the minds of many that about the middle of Mr Lincoln's first term he took equally strong ground against that Administration. In his customary extravagance of expression, he was accustomed to say he could count a hundred men who were beyond comparison fitter for the Presidential office than Mr. Lincoln. Yet Mr. Sumner was only too glad to aid in the re-election of the President whose abilities he had thus ridiculed.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee have agreed to report a bill providing for the appointment, on the part of the United States, of a joint commission to fix the boundary line between this country and the British Possessions, from the Lake of the Woods to the Rocky Mountains. It will be remembered that the President in his annual Message, called attention to the fact that it had been discovered that the boundary line, as at present established, puts the Hudson's Bay Company's fort a mile or more within the United States.

The new capital of West Virginia is apparently not over supplied with hotels, as the citizens of Charleston have appointed a committee to provide accommodations for the members of the Legislature, and for the judges and attorneys in attendance upon the Supreme Court. The Wheeling Intelligencer suggests that they are to be "boarded round."

The Philadelphia Democrats, true to their rowdy instincts, assure Mayor Fox that in signing the paid fire department ordinance he also signed his political death warrant. Its always unsafe for a Democrat to do anything respectable.

MRS GATES AND MRS. JAMES.—Mrs. Gates—Good morning Mrs James. How well you are looking, far better than when I saw you last.

Mrs James—Oh, yes, I am much better than I have been for a long time, and am now on my way for more of my favorite medicine—PLANTATION BITTERS. One bottle of it is worth all the doctors in the world. No more doctors for me.

Mrs Gates—Nearly every one speaks well of PLANTATION BITTERS and I have a mind to try it myself. The fact is, I have no appetite strength or energy for anything. Mary and Lizzie are in the same way, and lounge about the house all day long, good for nothing.

Mrs Gates—My word for it, Mrs. Gates, just let them try PLANTATION BITTERS moderately three times a day, and you will see a wonderful improvement.

The particular attention of the Farming Community is called to our recent importation of Improved MOLINE PLOWS greatly superior to any other Moline Plow in the Market, notwithstanding a certain firm somewhat noted for truth and veracity—"so called"—persist in affirming that they are "bogus" "California made" etc.

Don't fail to call and look at one of the MOLINE PLOW Co's LATEST MAKE, and we think you will coincide with a Yamhill Farmer, who after "looking round" and hearing the old story about bogus Molines etc delivered himself thusly: "Well Myers I'll just chance a couple of those new plows, and if they are 'bogus,' as that gassy chap above here says, I'll be d—rned if I won't take bogus in mine every time."

Next month we expect another shipment of those justly celebrated BAIN WAGONS, (Have now only a few left of the last lot) STILL FURTHER IMPROVED over all heretofore received. It is not presumption on our part to say that they are head and shoulders above any other Farm wagon in market in point of material, workmanship and finish, having achieved a reputation throughout the West, and wherever introduced on the Pacific second to no other wagon. Some of the first sold here—three years ago—have never yet had a tire re-set, and our experience has enabled us to order many changes and improvements over the ordinary make of western wagons to meet the wants and requirements of this coast. We shall sell the BAIN WAGON at the lowest possible price for a first class wagon, and WARRANT them such; and in this connection beg to caution purchasers not to confound them with "inferior makes" that others are or may endeavor to sell on the strength of the established reputation of the Bain manufacture, particularly after having made repeated and persistent efforts (without avail) to purchase wagons of Mr Bain for this market.

Wiles of a Wicked Widow.

SHE MARRIES A YOUNGSTER AND SWINDLES HIM.

[From the Columbus (Ind.) Democrat.]

A disreputable transaction, by which some parties hitherto regarded as honorable and upright, sought to defraud a poor simpleton out of his birthright, has come to light in Rockcreek township, this county. The history of the case is briefly this: A few months ago, a widow, scheming and unprincipled, put in an appearance in the vicinity, and succeeded after some courting on her part, in marrying a young man, or boy who is not of very strong mind. The martial relation, however, existed only in name—the whilom widow being willing to assume the name, but not the duties, of a wife. Things went on this way for some little time, but the young man, having some feelings in common with sound-minded humanity, sought to change the order of things. This gave rise to frequent disputes and quarrels, but the matter was finally settled by a compromise—she agreeing to "be good" if he would deed to a party named by her an 80-acre tract of land in Boone county, which had been given him by his father. In his desperation this he agreed to, and performed his part of the contract. By a cunningly devised version of a theft which had been committed, and of which theft she is supposed to be the pepetrator, she succeeded in fastening suspicion upon her husband, and by a hypocritital profession for his welfare, induced him to fly the State. She has kept him away ever since through the agency of false reports, threatening his safety, transmitted to him from time to time. She was a defaulter in her part of the contract by which she was to obtain his land. The second party now deeded the land to his wife, as per previous agreement, and she conveyed it to the fourth party in this little moral drama. The fourth is in possession of considerable wealth, the head of a respectable family, and has been regarded as honorable and upright. He sold the land to one not in the "ring" for $1,600, and with the money, when paid, it having been sold on time, was to purchase, in [illegible] vicinity a homestead for the woman. The [illegible] mistreated husband, getting an [illegible] matter, constitutes himself an [illegible] mittee, acts in the premises, [illegible] Boone county Court for [illegible] of the [illegible] and damages, set[illegible] plea of fraud. No consideration [illegible] in any of the transfers except the last, [illegible] claimed by the parties that payment [illegible] to be made except the equivalent pro[illegible] and which, as shown, she [illegible] illicit congress, it appears upon evidence of witnesses whose depositions were taken before a notary, has subsist[illegible] between the fourth party and the wife, and [illegible] supposed to be his incentive for acting [illegible] matter.

The Suburbs of New York.

[illegible] no help for the increase [illegible]. Their management is yet so [illegible] that they [illegible] to be a [illegible] their inhabitants and [illegible] to civ[illegible] and liberty [illegible] and yet [illegible] where they are increasing with a rapidity unknown [illegible] the [illegible] of railroads. To speak [illegible] examples near us, Philadelphia [illegible] all the surrounding villages, [illegible] in extent and in population, [illegible] city in the United States. [illegible] taken in Williamsburg, and the [illegible] will hardly stop short of [illegible] Kings [illegible]. Boston only last year [illegible] Jersey City has taken in [illegible] ages on its borders. And [illegible] York with a plan to annex a [illegible] Westchester county.

[illegible] report of the Central Park Commis[illegible] last year [illegible] suggested that, as at [illegible] time, and probably before long, a part [illegible] Westchester county would be united with [illegible] city, care should be taken to lay out new [illegible] adjacent region, so [illegible] usefulness should not be [illegible]. More recently, practical ar[illegible] been made for taking into our [illegible] the town of Morrisiana, West [illegible] Eastchester, Westchester, [illegible] and New Rochelle. A bill was drawn, [illegible] to the Legislature when it [illegible] the question began to be discussed [illegible] property owners. But suddenly a [illegible] opposition appears; and energetic citi[illegible] of the towns named, Morrisi[illegible] Farms and Westchester, at a meet[illegible] Saturday evening denounced annexa[illegible] to New York [illegible], and it was pro[illegible] to unite these three towns into one city, [illegible] proper city government.

[illegible] seems to be generally admitted that some [illegible] compact organization is necessary; and [illegible] probable that the question whether it [illegible] annexed to New York, or incorpora[illegible] city of Westchester [illegible] engage the attention of the Legislature [illegible] it meets. New York is the mother of a [illegible] villages and towns. Since 1850 the [illegible] of the counties which borders up[illegible] city has increased six hundred thous[illegible] and it is probable that at least two-thirds [illegible] increase came from New York. The [illegible] of Richmond, Kings (including [illegible] Queens, Westchester, Orange and [illegible] in this State, and of Bergen, Hud[illegible] and Passaic, in New Jersey, had, [illegible] together [illegible] 000 people twenty years [illegible] they have now 2,114,000. Moreover it [illegible] New York loses to these outlay[illegible] districts every year a class of people [illegible] great city can spare—the families [illegible] moderate means; and more and more the [illegible] to leave the city to only the very [illegible] very poor. That the annexation [illegible] the whole ten counties we have named [illegible] would remedy this evil is not probable. [illegible] govern great cities is a problem to the [illegible] which the best statesmanship of [illegible] might well set itself.—N. Y. Post.

LAND DEPARTMENT

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned:

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd-numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminus with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government; The party can leave the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest.

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus a morbo into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957. REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED [illegible] was made before the books were [illegible] number of Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from [illegible] and Daily [illegible] will convey a good [illegible] workings of the Association, the [illegible].

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association [illegible] we gave an account a few [illegible] ready to dispose of shares. [illegible] exception, (the Portland Homestead [illegible] the pioneer organization of that [illegible] may be well enough to [illegible] purposes, and the manner in which [illegible] conduct its operations. The [illegible] Association [illegible] on the ordinary [illegible] are [illegible] for the [illegible] upon the natural adv[illegible] lands, consequent [illegible] of many individuals—[illegible] on values of all [illegible] the expansion of [illegible] outside of, but [illegible] Riverside [illegible] Association [illegible] one hundred and [illegible] situated just south of [illegible] the river, the near[illegible] about one mile from the [illegible] Portland. The land lies [illegible] half a mile [illegible] along the Oregon and [illegible] length, the two [illegible] the middle by two [illegible] between [illegible] unlike the letter H. [illegible] blocks 200 feet square (with [illegible] at right angles, and 84 [illegible] the river front. The shares [illegible] $40 per share. It will be seen that a share [illegible] represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The [illegible] are to be sold [illegible] at the proper [illegible] of the Association [illegible] in proportion to the [illegible] shares [illegible] When all shares are taken [illegible] the Association shall determine [illegible] of lots and blocks [illegible] at auction to the [illegible] the proceeds of such sales, after [illegible] the original price of shares or lots, to be [illegible] among the whole number of shares. Thus if a person wants a particular lot or block, and is willing to pay $150 or $200 [illegible] as the case may be, he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual property, the premium being divided among the whole [illegible] of shareholders. It will be seen, that [illegible] everything is co-operative and all [illegible]. No man can make a dollar out of [illegible] without making a dollar for every other shareholder. There is no chance for loss, unless the property by some chance, should [illegible] fall below the first actual cost. [illegible] liable to happen in the case of this [illegible] tract and must be judged by each [illegible] considering the steady and rapid [illegible] real estate in this city and [illegible] East Portland and [illegible] last year or two it seems [illegible] value it [illegible].

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] have been taken to guard [illegible] holders of shares. No person is [illegible] buy more than one [illegible] three blocks or twenty-four lots, and votes [illegible] the operations of the [illegible] same manner. The [illegible] shares [illegible] down $40 per share, which will exempt them [illegible] or they [illegible] with the first installment [illegible] another (and only one) [illegible] assessment of $5 per share. Upon the [illegible] of the shares in full, with the [illegible] entitled to his [illegible] of the profits [illegible] Officer of the Association [illegible] services except the [illegible] will be seen that the [illegible].

[illegible] along the river is [illegible] about 60 to 90 feet [illegible] no part of the front [illegible] splendid view of [illegible] the river for miles up and down [illegible]. That part of the tract lying along the railroad [illegible] of the richest loam soil and [illegible] garden purposes. A beautiful [illegible] water runs through almost [illegible] length of this wing of the tract, affording [illegible] irrigation, and power sufficient [illegible] water to every part of the whole tract [illegible] waste or fractional lot in the [illegible]. Under all these advantages, [illegible] possible that there should be any [illegible] shareholders. Within a year [illegible] he may get a perfect title [illegible] as his share may represent, [illegible] his interest, undivided, with [illegible] while the organization may [illegible].

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been [illegible] to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of [illegible] homesteads on the outskirts of this city and East [illegible] is being thoroughly discussed here among all classes [illegible] "Riverside," just south of [illegible] has already been established. The site [illegible] tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the [illegible]. It is shaped like the letter H, one side of which is half mile in length, borders on the river.

From this portion of the homestead, which is elevated but a trifle above the other [illegible] of the H, but is all forty or fifty feet above the [illegible] can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the shipping, and the Willamette river for several miles. The land is very fertile, and is partly covered with light fir timber. A tract of land just [illegible] two rows of blocks, with an avenue between [illegible] the west prong of the H (which has [illegible] with that of the east. This last tract [illegible] beautiful little valley, which is now [illegible] cultivation. Through its whole length runs [illegible] the water of which is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association proposes to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.
